3.1.14. Business Registration

Bidders may be required to be registered to carry on business in accordance with applicable laws. For information on the business registration requirements of the Nova Scotia Registry of Joint Stock Companies, please consult:

A bid can be accepted for evaluation, regardless of (i) whether the company is registered, or (ii) whether its business registration is in good standing. However, a contract cannot be awarded unless the successful bidder is registered and in good standing, in accordance with applicable laws.

If the bidder's business is not required to register in Nova Scotia, the bidder will be required to submit registration from their applicable jurisdiction.

It is the responsibility of the bidder to seek clarification from the HRM Contact on any matter it considers to be unclear. HRM is not responsible for any misunderstanding on the part of the bidder concerning this RFSO or its process.

3.2.2. All New Information to Bidders by Way of Addenda

This RFSO may be amended only by addendum in accordance with this section. If HRM, for any reason, determines that it is necessary to provide additional information relating to this RFSO, such information will be communicated by addendum on the Nova Scotia Procurement Web Portal. Each addendum forms an integral part of this RFSO and may contain important information, including significant changes to this RFSO. Bidders are responsible for obtaining all addenda issued by HRM. In the Bid Submission Form (Appendix C), bidders should confirm their acknowledgement of all addenda by setting out the number of each addendum in the space provided. HRM may, in its sole discretion, disqualify a bid or require a bidder to acknowledge all addenda in writing prior to contract award if the bidder fails to do so in its bid.

If HRM determines that it is necessary to issue an addendum after the Deadline for Issuing Addenda, HRM may extend the Submission Deadline for a reasonable period of time.

3.2.4. Verify and Clarify

During the evaluation process, HRM may request further information from the bidder or third parties in order to verify and/or clarify the information provided in the bidder's bid. The response received by HRM shall form an integral part of the bidder's bid.

The intent of the debriefing information session is to aid the bidder in presenting a better bid in subsequent procurement opportunities. Any debriefing provided is not for the purpose of providing an opportunity to challenge the procurement process or its outcome.

3.3.5. Supplier Complaint Procedure

If a bidder wishes to file a complaint in regards to the RFSO process, it must provide written notice to HRM's Manager of Procurement within ten (10) days of posting of the outcome of the procurement process on the Nova Scotia Procurement Web Portal, and HRM will respond in accordance with the Bidder Complaint Procedure set out in Appendix "C" of HRM's Procurement Policy (Administrative Order 2016-005-ADM).

3.3.6. Purchases by Other Public Sector Entities

If requested by any other public sector entity, the successful bidder agrees to make its goods and services available to the other public sector entity upon the same pricing, terms and conditions as those provided to HRM.

The successful bidder is not obligated to extend its goods and/or services to other public sector entities if doing so would cause the bidder to make capital or operational expenditures in order to accommodate the request.

Any arrangement or agreement with another public sector entity will be solely between the successful bidder and the other public sector entity. HRM will not be a party to any such agreement, and HRM is not liable in any respect for any obligation, act or omission by a party to such agreement.

For the purposes of this section, a public sector entity means any provincial government or provincially funded entity in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, and Newfoundland and Labrador, including municipalities, universities, community colleges, school boards, health authorities, housing authorities, agencies, boards, commissions, and Crown corporations, and entities defined by contract as agents of HRM.

Each Purchase Order placed by HRM for Goods and/or Services is subject to these Purchase Order Terms and Conditions. Supplier is deemed to have agreed to be bound by these Purchase Order Terms and Conditions by accepting the Purchase Order, commencing manufacture or delivery of the Goods, commencing performance the Services, or by submitting an invoice for payment.

1. Definitions.

In these Purchase Order Terms and Conditions, the following definitions apply:

- (a) “Agreement” means the agreement between Supplier and HRM for the purchase of Goods and/or Services, as is more fully described in Section 2.
- (b) “Delivery Date” means the date specified by HRM in a Purchase Order for the delivery of Goods or for the completion of Services.
- (c) “Delivery Point” means the location identified by HRM in a Purchase Order to which Supplier is to deliver Goods and/or perform the Services, or such other location which is specified in writing by HRM.
- (d) “Goods” means the items that are required to be delivered by Supplier pursuant to a Purchase Order, and includes all related products, materials, component parts, packaging, labelling, data and documentation.
- (e) “HRM” means Halifax Regional Municipality.
- (f) “Purchase Order” means any purchase order, order acknowledgement, invoice or any other document used by HRM to place an order from a Supplier for the purchase of Goods and/or Services.
- (g) “Services” means any work to be performed by Supplier for HRM pursuant to a Purchase Order, and includes any related data or documentation.
- (h) “Specifications” means:
 - i. the requirements, attributes and specifications for the Goods or Services that are set out or referenced in the applicable Purchase Order;

 - iii. operational and technical features and functionality of the Goods or Services;
 - iv. standards or levels of service performance for Services; and
 - v. HRM business requirements that are expressly set out or referenced in a Purchase Order.

- (i) "Supplier" means the party indicated on the face page of the Purchase Order that is contracting with HRM for the purchase of Goods and/or Services.
- (j) "Supplier Proposal" means any acknowledgement, estimate, bid, quote, offer to sell, invoice, or proposal of Supplier relating to the supply of Goods and/or Services to HRM, including any documents or information delivered by Supplier to HRM in connection with a request for quotations, request for tenders, request for proposals or similar process initiated by HRM.

2. Agreement.

- (a) The Agreement consists only of:
 - i. the applicable Purchase Order;
 - ii. any Specifications or other documents expressly referenced in the Purchase Order or in HRM's request for quotations, request for tenders, request for proposals or similar process initiated by HRM; and
 - iii. these Purchase Order Terms and Conditions.
- (b) The Agreement excludes, and prevails over, any terms and conditions of sale of Supplier regardless of the form of such terms and conditions or the time at which such terms and conditions are presented to HRM. HRM and Supplier specifically agree that HRM will not be deemed to have accepted any of Supplier's terms and conditions including if HRM should fail to object to them in any communication received from Supplier or should HRM subsequently execute any of Supplier's field tickets, forms, receipts, invoices, or terms of services. For greater certainty, any document sent by Supplier to HRM, including but not limited to the Supplier Proposal, will not constitute part of the Agreement between HRM and Supplier.
- (c) Any reference in the Purchase Order to any Supplier Proposal is solely for the purpose of incorporating the descriptions and Specifications of the Goods and/or Services contained in Supplier Proposal, and only to the extent that the terms of Supplier Proposal do not conflict with the descriptions and Specifications set out in the Purchase Order.
- (d) If there is any conflict or inconsistency between the documents constituting the Agreement, then unless otherwise expressly provided, the documents will rank in the order of precedence in accordance with the order in which they are listed in Section 2(a).
- (e) A Purchase Order is not an exclusive contract for the provision of the Goods and/or Services listed therein. HRM may contract with one or more other suppliers for the same or similar Goods and/or Services to those described or may obtain the same or similar Goods and/or Services through HRM's own forces.

3. Delivery of Goods and Services.

- (f) At any time prior to the delivery of the Goods or performance of the Services, HRM may, upon notice to Supplier, cancel or change a Purchase Order, or any portion thereof, for any reason, including, without limitation, for the convenience of HRM or due to failure of Supplier to comply with the Agreement, unless otherwise noted.

- (e) HRM shall provide Supplier, no later than the end of the Inspection Period, a written notice of any Goods or Services that are rejected, together with the reasons for such rejection. If HRM does not provide Supplier with any notice of rejection before the end of the Inspection Period, HRM will be deemed to have accepted such Goods or Services.
- (f) HRM's inspection (or non-inspection), testing (or non-testing), acceptance or use of the Goods or Services shall not limit or otherwise affect Supplier's warranty obligations with respect to the Goods or Services.
