

Canada-Germany Hydrogen and Ammonia Producer-Offtaker ConferenceMarch 18, 2024 – Handelskammer Hamburg, Adolphsplatz 1, 20457 Hamburg

9.15 a.m. Arrival of participants at conference venue (security check-in with valid government-issued ID)  10.00 a.m. Ministerial opening (in the Forum)  Speakers:  • Norbert Aust, Praeses Hamburg Chamber of Commerce  • Robert Habeck, Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action  • Jonathan Wilkinson, Minister for Energy and Natural Resources  • Tim Houston, Premier of Nova Scotia  • John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany  • Melanie Leonhard, Senator for Economy and Innovation  10.45 a.m. Multi-Stakeholder-Roundtables preparing Ministerial roundtable in the afternoon, with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, BMWK, NRCan, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders. There will be several parallel discussion groups. Participants can find their group number on their name badge.  11.45 a.m. Networking and matchmaking with Canadian producers and German offtakers (with each producer being provided a private meeting space). Networking can extend until after lunch.  1.00 p.m. Lunch (in the Forum)  2.30 p.m. Ministerial roundtable with CEOs, government and finance (Plenary hall) Ministers speak with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, government, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders about challenges to implementing projects and concluding supply contracts, as well as about potential solutions.  Conference reception (in the Kaisersaal of the Mayor's Office), with remarks by:  • Peter Tschentscher, First Mayor of Hamburg  • John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany  • Robert Habeck, Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action  • Jonathan Wilkinson, Minister for Energy and Natural Resources  6.00 p.m. End of programme	Г
Speakers:  Norbert Aust, Praeses Hamburg Chamber of Commerce Robert Habeck, Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action Jonathan Wilkinson, Minister for Energy and Natural Resources Tim Houston, Premier of Nova Scotia John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany Multi-Stakeholder-Roundtables preparing Ministerial roundtable in the afternoon, with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, BMWK, NRCan, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders. There will be several parallel discussion groups. Participants can find their group number on their name badge.  Networking and matchmaking with Canadian producers and German offtakers (with each producer being provided a private meeting space). Networking can extend until after lunch.  Lunch (in the Forum)  Lunch (in the Forum)  Ministerial roundtable with CEOs, government and finance (Plenary hall) Ministers speak with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, government, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders about challenges to implementing projects and concluding supply contracts, as well as about potential solutions.  Conference programme (in the Forum)  Regional economic opportunities and social license for hydrogen projects Support mechanisms for international hydrogen projects Support mechanisms for international hydrogen projects  On p.m.  Conference reception (in the Kaisersaal of the Mayor's Office), with remarks by: Peter Tschentscher, First Mayor of Hamburg John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany Alone Habeck, Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action Jonathan Wilkinson, Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action	9.15 a.m.
Robert Habeck, Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action Jonathan Wilkinson, Minister for Energy and Natural Resources Tim Houston, Premier of Nova Scotia John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany Melanie Leonhard, Senator for Economy and Innovation  10.45 a.m.  Multi-Stakeholder-Roundtables preparing Ministerial roundtable in the afternoon, with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, BMWK, NRCan, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders. There will be several parallel discussion groups. Participants can find their group number on their name badge.  11.45 a.m.  Networking and matchmaking with Canadian producers and German offtakers (with each producer being provided a private meeting space). Networking can extend until after lunch.  1.00 p.m.  Lunch (in the Forum)  2.30 p.m.  Ministerial roundtable with CEOs, government and finance (Plenary hall) Ministers speak with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, government, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders about challenges to implementing projects and concluding supply contracts, as well as about potential solutions.  4.00 p.m.  Conference reception (in the Kaisersaal of the Mayor's Office), with remarks by: Peter Tschentscher, First Mayor of Hamburg John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany Robert Habeck, Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action Jonathan Wilkinson, Minister for Energy and Natural Resources	10.00 a.m.	, , , afternoon, with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, BMWK, NRCan, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders.  There will be several parallel discussion groups. Participants can find their group number on their name badge.  Networking and matchmaking with Canadian producers and German offtakers (with each producer being provided a private meeting space).  Networking can extend until after lunch.  Lunch (in the Forum)  Ministerial roundtable with CEOs, government and finance (Plenary hall)  Ministers speak with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, government, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders about challenges to implementing projects and concluding supply contracts, as well as about potential solutions.  Conference programme (in the Forum)  Regional economic opportunities and social license for hydrogen projects  Support mechanisms for international hydrogen projects  Support mechanisms for international hydrogen projects  Conference reception (in the Kaisersaal of the Mayor's Office), with remarks by:  Peter Tschentscher, First Mayor of Hamburg  John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany  Robert Habeck, Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action  Jonathan Wilkinson, Minister for Energy and Natural Resources		<ul> <li>Robert Habeck, Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action</li> <li>Jonathan Wilkinson, Minister for Energy and Natural Resources</li> <li>Tim Houston, Premier of Nova Scotia</li> <li>John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany</li> </ul> number on their name badge.  11.45 a.m. Networking and matchmaking with Canadian producers and German offtakers (with each producer being provided a private meeting space).  Networking can extend until after lunch.  1.00 p.m. Lunch (in the Forum)  2.30 p.m. Ministerial roundtable with CEOs, government and finance (Plenary hall) Ministers speak with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, government, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders about challenges to implementing projects and concluding supply contracts, as well as about potential solutions.  Conference programme (in the Forum)  Regional economic opportunities and social license for hydrogen projects Support mechanisms for international hydrogen projects  Support mechanisms for international hydrogen projects  Conference for hydrogen projects  Support mechanisms for international hydrogen projects  Peter Tschentscher, First Mayor of Hamburg John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany Robert Habeck, Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action Jonathan Wilkinson, Minister for Energy and Natural Resources	10.45 a.m.	afternoon, with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, BMWK, NRCan, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders.
(with each producer being provided a private meeting space).  Networking can extend until after lunch.  1.00 p.m.  Lunch (in the Forum)  Ministerial roundtable with CEOs, government and finance (Plenary hall)  Ministers speak with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, government, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders about challenges to implementing projects and concluding supply contracts, as well as about potential solutions.  Conference reception (in the Kaisersaal of the Mayor's Office), with remarks by:  Peter Tschentscher, First Mayor of Hamburg  John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany  Robert Habeck, Federal Minister for Energy and Natural Resources		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
2.30 p.m.  Ministerial roundtable with CEOs, government and finance (Plenary hall)  Ministers speak with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, government, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders about challenges to implementing projects and concluding supply contracts, as well as about potential solutions.  Conference programme (in the Forum)  Regional economic opportunities and social license for hydrogen projects  Support mechanisms for international hydrogen projects international hydrogen projects  Conference programme (in the Forum)  Regional economic opportunities and social license for hydrogen projects  Support mechanisms for international hydrogen projects of the Mayor's Office), with remarks by:  Peter Tschentscher, First Mayor of Hamburg  John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany  Robert Habeck, Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action  Jonathan Wilkinson, Minister for Energy and Natural Resources	11.45 a.m.	(with each producer being provided a private meeting space).
<ul> <li>government and finance (Plenary hall)         <ul> <li>Ministers speak with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, government, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders about challenges to implementing projects and concluding supply contracts, as well as about potential solutions.</li> </ul> </li> <li>4.00 p.m.         <ul> <li>Conference reception (in the Kaisersaal of the Mayor's Office), with remarks by:</li></ul></li></ul>	1.00 p.m.	Lunch (in the Forum)
<ul> <li>Peter Tschentscher, First Mayor of Hamburg</li> <li>John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany</li> <li>Robert Habeck, Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action</li> <li>Jonathan Wilkinson, Minister for Energy and Natural Resources</li> </ul>	2.30 p.m.	<ul> <li>government and finance (Plenary hall)</li> <li>Ministers speak with Canadian hydrogen and ammonia producers, German offtakers, government, financial experts and other hydrogen stakeholders about challenges to implementing projects and concluding supply contracts, as well as</li> <li>(in the Forum)</li> <li>Regional economic opportunities and social license for hydrogen projects</li> <li>Support mechanisms for international hydrogen projects</li> </ul>
6.00 p.m. End of programme	4.00 p.m.	<ul> <li>Peter Tschentscher, First Mayor of Hamburg</li> <li>John Horgan, Ambassador to Canada in Germany</li> <li>Robert Habeck, Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action</li> </ul>
	6.00 p.m.	End of programme

